BOARD EXAMINES HODGE'S RECORD

County Superintendent of Schools Assailed by Clements.

MEETS THE CHARGES.

Robinson Moncure, Former Member of House of Delegates, Appears as Counsel for the Accused.

Richmond, Va, Oct. 16.—Filing of sensational charges against Division Superintendent W. T. Hodges, of Alexandria county, a sweeping denial by the accussed official and a sharp interchange of words between opposing counsel marked the meeting of the state board of education, which convened here yesterday morning to hear contested appointments of school superintendents in six districts.

Charges and counter-charges of fraud and underhand methods in the conduct of the schol affairs of Alexandria county were filed before the board when the case coming from that county was reached. The charges against Superintendent W. T. Hodges, who is being opposed by J. E. Clements, bristled with indictments of fraud, untruthfulness and dishonorable conduct.

To all of the charges, individually and collectively, the accused superintendent entered an unqualified denial and countered with the direct accusation that the charges against him were conceived in the hatred of a political adventurer whom he had prohibited from exploiting the county school system for political purposes. It was further charged by Attorney Robinson Moncure, counsel for Superintendent Hodges, that the Alexandria board of supervisors was dominated by one man antagonistic to his client. The name of the person was not mentioned by the attorney, though it is certain that his identity will be made known as the taking of testimony in the Alexandria case progresses.

The charges against Superintendent Hodges set forth that he induced the school board of Alexandria county to surreptitiously increase his salary from $1,200 to $1,800 per year after contracting to serve for $1,200; that he quietly appropriated the state's increased contribution of $400, made possible by the increase of population in Alexandria county, without making any mention of it to the board of supervisors and when called to account for same stated his salary was $1,200, when, as a matter of fact, he was receiving $1,800, and, further, it is charged that his conduct has been such as to cause him to forfeit the respect of the school patrons and tax-payers of the county.

The indictment embraces six different charges, those mentioned above constituting tha most serious.

Following the reading of the formal charge by Attorney Douglass, representing the plaintiffs, Attorney Moncure, a member of the last general assembly from Alexandria city and county, arose to read the superintendent's answer to the charge. He did not mince words in arraigning those who are seeking to remove Hodges and spoke highly of his client, both as an instructor and citizen.

Answering the charges, Mr. Moncure denounced them as unqualifiedly false in the course of a formal reply which he read.

He declared that the charges were "conceived in the hatred of a political adventurer whom Mr. Hodges prohibited from exploiting the county school system for political purposes." He went on to charge that the board of supervisors is dominated by a man unfriendly to Mr. Hodges. This man's name was not called. Neither was the name of the alleged adventurer mentioned.

Mr. Hodges went on the stand and was questioned as to his conduct in the matter. He denied that he had been a party to anything under cover. He went on to explain how a number of bills incurred by him and paid by the county school board were the result of trips he had taken in the interest of school matters. These were charges against the contingent fund, it was asserted. A grand jury report read by counsel for the complainants set forth that all the alleged excess salary paid the superintendent came solely from the school board. Mr. Hodges claimed that a part of the extra salary was offset by the amounts paid him for expenses on trips.

The grand jury report was offered as evidence, as was also a voucher for $48.64, which, it was charged, was paid to Mr. Hodges in 1912, several weeks prior to the date it should have been issued. Another document was offered showing that schools in one district had to be closed during the term for lack of funds. Another bit of evidence was the minute book of the Washington District Board with a leaf torn out inclosting, it was charged, that an effort was made to cover up the reason why a particular warrant was paid the superintendent.

J. E. Clements, of counsel for the complainants, promised to show the extent of politics if counsel for the defense persisted in trying to get some light along this particular line. His statement was provoked by a question from Mr. Hodges' lawyer as to whether the Commonwealth's Attorney had not drawn up a certain resolution offered as evidence.

"If the gentleman wants us to bring out the politics in the case," declared Mr. Clements. "I think we can show him where the real politics are."

Andrew D. Torreyson, who said he had been a resident of Alexandria county for forty-seven years, testified that Mr. Hodges had declared publicly on one occasion that "you can't blame a man from taking all he can get," when questioned as to the raise in this salary. Though he had no objections to Mr. Hodges as a teacher, the witness thought the superintendent's usefulness as head of the schools was at an end as a result of disclosures in the salary issue.

An unsuccessful effort was made to discredit Mr. Torreyson as a witness. Mr. Hodges was represented by Hon. Robinson Moncure, while the charges were presented by Attorneys Swindell, James E. Clements, E. W. Ewing, and W. W. Douglas. Among the residents of Alexandria county who attended the hearing were Geo. N. Rucker, E. N. Febrey Fred W. Corbett, F. B. Foster, E. M. Shreve, George W. Zachary, John H. Trimyer, Frank Lyons, M. Cathart and Dr. Nazen. The friends of Superintendent Hodges are confident of his acquital.

Another big fight will come when the board reaches the Jones-Twyman contest in Buckingham county, postponed for a further hearing at the August meeting.

The incumbent is a Presbyterian minister, the Rev. Plummer F. Jones, pastor of a church at Arvonia. John A. Twyman, now seeking to defeat the incumbent, formerly held the peace.

ALEXANDRIA LEADS.

Wins Prize in Sale of Christmas Seals.

The work of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society is always of interest to Alexandria. The visiting nurse supplied by the efforts of this society, is something of which Alexandrians are justly proud. But to have this nurse, and do the other work of the Society, means that each year about $1,000 must be raised. One way of adding to this fund is by the sale of the Christmas seals. Last year rivalry for first place between the cities of Virginia, was run and it is now most gratifying to state that to Alexandria has been awarded the honors prize, the per capita sale in Alexandria being the highest in the State

To the teachers and scholars of the public schools the success is largely due, it is therefore gratifying to know that Albert Bryan to whom the school prize was awarded, stood third in the State contest.

APPEAL FOR WRIT OF ERROR

Annexation Case to be Brought Before Court of Appeals.

THE RECORD IS BULKY.

Corporation Attorney Samuel P. Fisher, of Alexandria, Leaves For Richmond.

Richmond, Oct. 16.—No judge of the Court of Appeals was in the city today; hence the appeal of the city of Alexandria in the annexation proceedings recently before the Circuit Court of Alexandria county was not presented.

A formal appeal from the decision of Judge Bennett T. Gordon, of Nelson county, who a year ago refused the demands of the City of Alexandria for additional territory to be taken from the counties of Alexandria and Fairfax is to be taken to the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia.

Samuel P. Fisher, corporation attorney of Alexandria, who with Attorneys Samuel G. Brent and John M. Johnson conducted the annexation fight for this city, left here last night for Richmond with the records in the case which are presented. The application for a writ of error will be presented to each judge of the Supreme Court until it has been granted or refused.

The attorneys of the city are confident that the writ of error will be granted and that early next year the court will reopen the case and take up the proposition from the very beginning.

Another bitter fight is expected before the court. Alexandria and Fairfax counties are represented by Hon. Andrew Jackson Montague former Governor of Virginia,and his brother R. L. Montague, who were associated with Crandall Mackey, corporation atorney, and Fairfax county by C. Vernon Ford, corporation attorney with the firm of Moore, Barber, Keith & McClandish.

The record in the case is voluminous, there being more than 1,500 printed pages with a large number of maps,charts and other data which will be placed before the court. It has required almost a year since Judge Bennett Gordon rendered his decision to prepare the records for presentation to the Supreme Court.

BASEBALL DROVE GIRL MAD.

Tired 'Phone Operator Attempting Suicide Gives That Reason.

New York, Oct. 16.—Her nerves shattered because of severe work during the world's series baseball game and harsh language by telephone patrons, Miss Ethel Bausert, a telephone operator 19 years old, Tuesday tried to commit suicide in her home by swallowing poison. The doctors hold out hopes for her recovery.

Soon after taking the poison the young woman began groaning and aroused her parents. Bausert, after giving his daughter emetics, took her to the Bradford Street Hospital. There Dr. Sibley revived her, and then asked:

"Why did you do this?"

"Because I was frantic over my work," the girl sobbed. "I did not mind answering the calls, but when men spoke harshly to me it upset my nerves completely. I did not realize what I was doing when I took the poison."

WHITE-RIXEY WEDDING.

Ceremony Performed in Historic Falls Church.

A beautiful wedding ceremony was performed at historic old Falls Church, yesterday at six o'clock when Miss Lillian Louise Rixey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Morehead Rixey, became the bride of Frederick H. White, of Washington. The church was decorated with autumn flowers and was filled with many freinds of the family from Washington, Baltimore, and points in Virginia

The bride was attended by Miss Roberta Lee Jackson, and Warren Hall was the best man. The bride's gown was of white tissue crepe dechene, and she wore a tulle bridal veil caught with lilies of the valley. The maid of honor's dress was pink over chalin lace.

The two flower girls, Misses Elizabeth and Josephine Ramage, wore dresses of dotted swiss over pink silk. Mrs. Rixey, the mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of black moire silk, with point de sprit lace.

The ushers were Howard W. Smith, Frank R. Lake, J. T. Tolman and Merle E. Mott.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. A. Wallis, D. D., of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. At the conclusion of the church ceremony, a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. White, after their return from an extended wedding trip, will make their home in Washington.

ELKS' OPENING BALL.

Arrangements Being Perfected by Special Committee.

With the approach of the cool and bracing weather comes the announcement of the Elk's opening ball, to take place at the Elks' Hall, Tuesday, October 21st. The arrangement for the coming dance is in the hands of a special committee appointed by Alexandria Lodge of Elks. During the winter season weekly dances will be given every Tuesday night. Competent instructors will be present to teach the young the art, and classes for beginners will be held from 7 to 8 p. m. From 8:30 to 12:00 those who wish to spend a pleasant evening will find it profitable as well as entertaining to visit the weekly dance. The committee in charge of the entertainment for the winter are well known, and the naming of them is a sufficient guarantee of a good time. They are Messrs. Jerome Kauffmann, Courtney Acton, Harry Fleischmann, R. Blumenfeld and Ervin Schwarzmann. Good music has been engaged for the winter, which promises to be a record breaker for pleasure.

More than Furniture—A Work Saving Machine.

The Hoosier Cabinet is more than a piece of furniture. It is a work saving machine which gives you a model kitchen no matter where you live. It is built wth all the careful precision of a watch. There are more parts in the Hoosier Cabinet than in a sewing machine, and every part has to work freely and perfectly all the time. In most cases the Hoosier Cabinet receives harder and more constant usage than any other piece of furniture in the house. You use it six times every day, before and after each meal, 365 days in the year. You want it in perfect order. It has to withstand the hard knocks, steam and changing temperature of your kitchen. See them this week at the Griffin Furniture Co. sale.

Underwood Stands Pat.

"I am not hunting trade war," declared House Leader Underwood, after a visit to the White House today, "but I do favor a 5 per cent tariff subvention for goods shipped in American vessels as a means of rehabilitating the American merchant marine.

Underwood will stand pat on the 5 per cent clause in the tariff. President Wilson, it is understood, knew the House leader's theories before signing the bill, and probably will back him for the retention of the provision. The bill gives the President power to abrogate trade treaties conflicting with the 5 per cent idea.

HOMICIDES AND SUICIDES IN STATE

Total Number as Compiled by the Virginia Board of Health.

FIGURES A SURPRISE.

Preparation of Vital Statistics Chart For Benefit of Next General Assembly.

Richmond, Oct. 16.—Vital statistics complied during the last year by the State board of health are being utilized in the preparation of charts and maps by which the next general assembly will be able to see how disease is spread over the State and where the war for better health must be present more vigorously.

The board of health, which now has the first set of scientific vital statistics for twelve months ever collected in the State, has tabulated the returns from the birth and death certificates for its annual report and will complete its maps based on these certificates in time for the meeting of the general assembly.

Some of the charts, it was explained at the offices of the board will be interesting to the general public as well as to legislators and phyiscians. Among them will be a chart showing the number and distribution of homicides in the State during the last twelve months. This is the first time these figures have ever been prepared and their total is said to be somewhat surprising. Another chart will show the number of suicides in the State and the counties where these occurred. Still another will demonstrate the number of accidental deaths in every county and city in the State.

Other charts will show the mortality from the various preventable diseases—typhoid fever, diptheria, scarlet fever, smallpox and the like, while one chart will be devoted to a graphic representative of pellagra.

The regular monthly meeting of make complete the registration of births and deaths in the State, is also preparing a series of charts, showing percentage of births to total population in all the counties and cities of the State. While no figures have yet been given out, it was stated at the offices of the board today that at least two counties of the Commonwealth would show a birth rate which would delight the heart of the enemies of race suicide. One county, indeed, is said to have one of the highest birth rates ever reported in the history of vital statistics—a rate about double that of more settled communities.

Such of the charts as are completed and mounted by next week will be shipped to Lynchburg for the annual meeting of the Medical Society of Virginia, but the full list will not be displayed until the meeting of the general assembly in January.

Ellison, Tyson Janney and C. H. Rector. These gentlemen have held several meetings during the past few weeks, and have examined a number of houses in Alexandria, Falls Church and other places. On Tuesday the committee met here and purchased the property of J. Randall Caton, No. 420 north Washington street, through Monroe & Marbury, of this city. Rev. D. H. Kern is the presiding elder of this district, appointed at the last meeting of the conference held in Staunton. This residence is located on one of the most beautiful residential streets, and where property values are steadily increasing. The purchase of this house for a parsonage means that Alexandria will be the headquarters of the Alexandria district, and we welcome the presiding elder to our midst.

PRACTICING FOR GAME.

For the first time since Saturday's game the Cardinals assembled in the Armory last night for a light work out preparatory to the second game, which will be played Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m., against the Trinity A. C., at the local ball park.

Trainer Mueller, examined every player and found them in the best condition, not one complaining of the slightest ailment, a stiff signal practice was held and plans for the next game were completed.

Although the Trinity aggregation lost their last game the manager has secured some new men, and from all reports they will be greatly improved, and should give a good account of themselves.

GUILTY ON FIRST ARTICLE.

Preliminary Vote in High Court of Impeachment.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Behind closed doors after a day spent in private consultation similar to that of a jury or a legislative committee in executive session, the hgh court of impeachment registered its opinion that Governor William Sulzer was guilty on the first article of the articles of impeachment presented by the assembly.

There was a roll call, which resulted, if the reports taken to Governor Sulzer by his agents are correct, 39 against him to 18 for him. Senator Ramsperger, of Buffalo, voted for him at first, then changed his vote.

This vote, thus registered, is not a formal, final vote. It was the understanding of the court that it was preliminary and that the members will have opportunity, if they desire, to register their votes differently on the formal roll call.

However, it is considered improbable that any result more favorable to Governor Sulzer will be reached, for the court, earlier in the afternoon, had registered a vote against him even heavier on another matter. The question then under discussion was whether the phraseology of Article IV was sufficiently broad to permit consideration of the testimony of Duncan W. Peck, as a substantive charge against the governor under that article.

The court voted that it was and the article need not be amended.

HUERTA'S EXPLANATION

Says He Did Not Receive President's Note Officially.

Mexico City, Oct. 16. — General Huerta's explanation of why he has not replied to the unequivocal note from President Wilson, according to one of the dictator's close advisers today, is that he did not receive the note officially This is the Huerta version of the affair:

"Charge Nelson O'Shaughnessy received the note by cable from Washington and took it to the national palace. Huerta read it and then asked O'Shaughnessy:

"Do you want this note to be officially accepted and answered by me?"

The charge cabled the State department for instructions and was told not to present the note officially.

It is believed Huerta will respect the note.

JUDGE WADDILL ON THE HARPER CASE

Says he Never Saw a Guiltier Man While Discussing Matter.

SEEKS A NEW TRIAL.

Distiller Convicted by Federal Jury of Technical Violation of Revenue Laws.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 16. — After once reporting that it was hopelessly divided, the jury in the United States District Court late yesterday afternoon acquitted Frank W. Harper, proprietor of Beaver Dam Distillery of the charge of defrauding the government, but found him guilty of technical violation of the internal revenue laws. The jury remained out three hours before arriving at a decision. For violating laws governing whiskey-making, Harper is liable to fines of $5,000 and a prison term of from six months to four years. Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., suspended sentence over night while he considers Attorney Robert H. Talley's motion for a new trial.

There remains a possibility that the verdict will be set aside upon a technicality, though, after it was rendered, Judge Waddill made this announcement from the bench:

"I never saw a guiltier man in my life. If Harper is not convicted then we can never hope to get enough evidence to convict a distiller of tax frauds. The evidence of his guilt is overwhelming.It was all I could do restrain myself from instructing the jury to return a verdict of guilty as charged."

The jury in the Harper case was composed of E. A. Boyer, R. T. Faircloth, George H. Grisewold, W. A. Andrews, Parker T. Conrad, Henry P. Cerrington, Beverly C. Lewis, Frank B. Blankenship, L. Haxall, J. D. Clark, T. C. Bishop and C. B. Graves.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Would Let Clergymen Quit Work at Age of 65—May Drop Classification of Jews With Infidels.

New York, Oct. 16.—The House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church, whose general trienial convention is in session here yesterday instructed the church joint commission for the support of the clergy to prepare resolutions that may be made effective by the two governing bodies, relating to pensions for retired Episcopal ministers. The proposal of the joint commission is that clergymen at the age of 65 years are entitled to retire on a pension equal to one-half their annual average salary since ordination, no pension to exceed $3,000 a year. Clergymens widows and orphans are also provided for, the children's pensions on a scale graduated according to ages.

The committee on prayer book of the house of deputies reported favorably on a proposition to amend the third collect in the Good Friday service by omitting the words, "All Jews, infidels, Turks, and heretics," from the general prayer for humanity. Consideration of the committee's report was postponed, however, to permit discussion regarding a further amendment which proposed that this prayer be offered for the "ancient Jews and all atheists. The ritual murder trial at Kief, Russia, was condemned in a resolution adopted by the house of deputies

Meat to Remain High.

Milwaukee, Oct. 16.—The placing of cattle on the free list will not mean any material reduction in the price of meat, according to Patrick Cudahy, just back from Europe.

He says that when the ranges were free it paid to grow large herds of cattle, because this could be done cheaply. Also, the farmers then were debt-ridden and glad to sell their cattle at low prices.

ENJOYABLE OCCASION

Annual Reunion of Alumnae of St. Mary's Academy Last Night

The Sisters of the Holy Cross had the happiness of welcoming back to Alma Mater a large number of graduates when last evening they held their annual reunion of St. Mary's alumnae, an organization that counts on its roll women whose after-school careers are an honor to the institution from whose halls they have gone forth crowned with the highest dignities in its power to confer. The beautiful parlors and assembly hall of the school were transformed into bowers of loveliness by the deft hands of devoted pupils and at the hour of six the program complimentary to the alumnae began. It was in a great part the work of Miss Gertrude Spetzler, a graduate of St. Catherine's Normal Institute, Baltimore, a training school for teachers under the direction of the Sisters of the Holy Cross. The program opened by a violin solo ably given by Miss Winifred Bayne. Miss Jeannette Prosise then offered greetings to the assembled alumnae in behalf of the school and its faculty, which was followed by a splendid interpretation of the witty scene between Portia and Nerissa from "Merchant of Venice." Miss Spetzler made an excellent Portia as she discoursed pleasantly the qualities of her respective wooers.

A vocal solo by Miss Janet Reishelll "Come Buy My Roses," gave her clear soprano voice full range while it showed the capabilities of careful voice training; a piano solo was then splendidly rendered by Miss Kathryn Brill after which Miss Spetzler in fitting costume opened the chief number on the program. It was a monologue rendition of the most striking part of the wonderful morality play, "Every Woman," just now occupying the best stages in the country. The selection was in five canticles—"Every Woman's Home," "Stage of a Metropolitan Theatre," "Every Woman's Apartment," "A Street", "Every Woman's Home," and the moral was not for to seek under the masterly rendition of so able an interpreter as Miss Spetzler. Every woman tempted by Youth, Beauty, Wealth, and Flattery seeks vainly for Love; Truth warns her, but she sees him ugly and distasteful. The years go by in the vain quest; Youth and Beauty depart only to be hastily followed by Wealth and Flattery. Then Truth comes back and she sees him in his true light; he brings her love and she is happy.

At the conclusion of the entertainment which was easily among the best ever rendered on St. Mary's stage, Mrs. Guida Kengla, of Eastern College, Manassas, vice president of the association in the enforced absence of its enthusiastic president, Miss Ella Hill, called the meeting to order for the election of officers which resulted as follows: President, Miss Theresa Waters, of Washington; Vice-President, Miss Margaret Greene; Secretary, Miss Rosa Crilly; Treasurer, Miss Agnes Gilroy; Historian, Miss Mildred Hellmuth; and Librarian, Miss Alice Hamill. Regrets were read from Misses Ella Hill, Louise and Estelle Kearny,

POLICE COMMISSIONERS

Investigation of Escape of Negro Murderer Last Week

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held last night in the Mayor's office in the City Hall. The most important matter brought before the board was the escape of Robert Hampton, colored, who murdered Amos Robinson, colored, in the southern section of the city last Friday afternoon, it being alleged that Hampton returned to the neighborhood the following night.

Chief of Police Goods appeared before the commissioners and was questioned regarding the escape of Hampton.

The chief in a letter submitted to the board, said he hoped the board would investigate the case, in order to ascertain if there was any negligence on the part of anybody.

Commissioner Knight wanted to know if it was true that two members of the force quit watching the house where Hampton stayed in order to be relieved at 11 o'clock.

Chief Goods stated he had placed the men at the point after a thorough search of the neighborhood with several other officers. He did not tell them they were to be relieved, he said, but had picked two men to remain in the vicinity all night. The chief admitted that two men he had placed to watch the murderer's home departed before men came to relieve them, but declared that they had since realized that they had committed an error for which they have expressed regret.

Notwithstanding the testimony of a colored woman before the coroner's jury that Hampton returned to the house and changed his clothing, the chief did not think this was so, inasmuch as none of Hampton's clothing was found on the premises. There was no indication that the door of the house in question had been forced, he said.

The chief also was questioned regarding the recent escape of three prisoners from police headquarters, the matter being brought up by Commissioner Shinn. Two of the men, the chief explained, were held on a charge of being drunk, while the third was suspected of robbery. One of those who escaped was captured. He said the prisoners made their get-away by forcing the bars of a window on the south side, the iron bars of a window on the south side, the iron bars being weak and old. Mayor Fisher said he would take up the matter of placing more substantial bars on the window with the public property committee of the City Council.

Reckless driving on the streets, especially after dark, was brought up by Commissioner Shinn. In the opinion of Commissioner Lawler, more arrests would direct attention to the ordinance and cause a discontinuance of the practice.

Attention of the board was directed by Commissoner Knight to the large number of boys who nightly stand around moving picture places and frequently beg pedestrians for money to pay their admission. The police in future will arrest all such offenders.

New Sport Coats at $10.00

In recent years there has not been launched a coat vogue gaining the success of the present one for the Smart Sport Coats. Perhaps their exceptional utility is one reason for their popularity, but we are certain the very unusual values we have offered and which we are still showing have been a strong attraction.

Especial attention is called to a new model made with Mandarin sleeves, deep belt, the convenient and smart patch pockets and large white buttons. The materials are double faced in all combinations of checks and fancy designs. It has frequently been pronounced the best in quality and workmanship, and its graceful, easy fit convinces you of its fine designing and tailoring, priced at $10.00.

Another excellent coat which is made in practically the same style as the above garment of boucle cloth, in black-and-white, navy-and-white, and brown-and-white stripes; this, too represents a value that is far above the ordinary, and is moderately priced a $12.75.

Sport Coats in a fine array of popular materials and a great variety of plain, fancy, and combination colorings, and many fine styles; sizes 16 to 40. Priced up to $27.50. Third Floor—G Street.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN MEET.

Virginia Synodical is Holding Annual Session in Charlottesville.

Charlottesville, Va., Oct. 16.—The ninth annual meeting of the Virginia Synodical, the organized women's work for missions of the Presbyterian Church, in Virginia, parts of West Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia, convened yesterday morning in the First Presbyterian Church, with the president, Mrs. J. Calvin Stewart, of Richmond, in the chair. After devotional exercises conducted by Dr. George L. Petrie, the visiting delegates were welcomed by Mrs. C. B. Somerville, of this city to which Mrs J. E. Thompson, of Charleston, W. Va., responded.

A summary of the year's work, given by the recording secretary, Mrs S. D. Walton, of Farmville, Va., showed an increase in membership of 215, making a total of 7,854, and an increase in gifts of $8,000, making a total of $48,000. One new presbyterial, Tygart's Valley, was added.

A sermon on "Christian Stewardship" was delivered by Rev. D. P. McGeachy, Lewisburg, W. Va., and Mrs. E. C. Cronk, Columbia, S. C., spoke on "In Tune With the Keynote of the Master."

At the afternoon session the devotional service was conducted by Mrs. H. N. Price, Baltimore. Mrs. W. P. McCorkle, Martinsville, Va., told how women could help in the work of Christian education and ministerial relief, and the cause of Sunday-school extension and publication work was presented by Rev. Dr. A. L. Phillips, of Richmond. This was followed by a conference on missionary literature, conducted by Mrs. Cronk.

A sermon on home missions was delivered at night by Rev. Leroy Gresham, Salem, Va., after which Dr. Phillips spoke of the Montreal Conference.

Harvey Williams Pleads Guilty to Charge of Transporting Girl.

Richmond, Oct. 16.—Harvey Williams, confessed white slaver, was on Tuesday sentenced to one year and one day in prison by Judge Waddill, in the United States District Court. Williams, a Norfolk man, plead guilty to the charge against him. He will go to the Federal prison at Moundsville, W. Va. He was charged with transporting Annie Bahner from Baltimore to Norfolk for immoral purposes.

TUCKER IS BEING URGED.

He is Reluctant, But Demand is Getting too Strong to Resist.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon Harry St. George Tucker to make the race for congress in the Tenth district against Representative H. D. Flood.

Mr. Tucker is not personally inclined to get into the contest. Letters from all over the Tenth district, are, however, pouring into his office, urging him to again enter Tenth district politics as a candidate for the house.

Mr. Tucker was in Washington today. He told some of his friends that the letters asking him to make the fights as a Wilson "Progressive" Democrat are so urgent that he did not know whether he could refuse to make the fight. He added personally that he did not feel like getting into the contest.

Mr. Tucker was much amused at newspaper articles published in Virginia mentioning him as an applicant for a federal judgeship in the District of Columbia and intimated he had sought the help of Senator Lewis, of Illinois, to get the judicial post.

The report had its origin this way. Mr. Tucker was at the White House about two weeks ago. While he was waiting to see the President, Senator Lewis walked in and greeted him, saying that he should have been the Virginian to have been selected for the post at St. James and adding that he should now be given a judgeship in the District of Columbia since another great Southerner had been sent to England as ambassador. The two men laughed together over the compliment and the incident passed out of Mr. Tucker's mind until a serious article was published in Virginia putting Mr. Tucker in the attitude of seeking a judicial post in Washington.

The only judicial post for which Mr. Tucker has been urged was the vacancy on the Fourth federal circuit, to which Judge Woods, of South Carolina, was appointed.

Belleville, N. J.—Jacob Reibold, owner of a bronze molding factory, shot and killed himself because of illness.

SENT TO GRAND JURY.

Richmond Druggist Held For Sale of Cocaine.

Richmond, Oct. 16.—C. L. Hancock, a Newport News druggist, arrested in Richmond a couple of months ago on a charge of having in his possession a large quantity of cocaine has been sent to the grand jury from police court, in which his case had been called and continued several times.

Hancock was arrested as he was getting into an automobile. In the grip he carried, the police say Hancock had about $1,000 worth of cocaine. Detectives testified they had talked to Hancock over the telephone to Newport News, and had led him to believe they were negroes engaged in the cocaine traffic. They induced him to come to Richmond to sell them some of the drug.

Hancock at one time had drug stores in Newport News and Norfolk. He was married a few years ago to a wealthy woman.

Col. J. F. Templeton Dead.

Takes Poison; Dies Joking.

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 16.—Thomas Hudson, 38 years old, who had been employed at a local factory, walked into the police station Tuesday night and remarked that he had taken laudanum. He was laughing as he told the story and he was not believed. Evidence of the poison soon developed, however, and Dr. W. P. Hoy was summoned. Dr. Hoy found the man had taken carbolic acid. Hudson died early yesterday. He is survived by a widow.

THE BRADDOCK MONUMENT.

The dedication of a memorial park and the unveiling of a monument to General Edward Braddock at Uniontown, Pa., stirs ancient echoes. A century and a half has passed since the English commander led his red-coated regulars and their provincial comrades from Alexandria into fatal ambush within a few miles of his goal in the struggle to wrest from French hands control of the headwaters of the Ohio. The fight for Fort Duquesne is a tale long told.

The French and Indian War was a training school for the great Revolution. Washington in his twenties campaigned with Braddock; and Morgan was there with his Virginia riflemen; In the north, Richard Montgomery was noticed at Louisburg; he died at Quebec in the later war, leading his troops over a flame-fenced, position. With Abercrombie on Lake Champlain were Stark, then a captain, who was to win laurels at Bennington and Putnam, the doughty Israel, then a major. From the beginning of the French and Indian war (1754-60), to that of the Revolution, a span of 21 years, was just enough to grow Washington from fellow 22 to executive 43. And a host of Southerners and New Englanders in the ranks and in minor commands had baptism of fire and learned tactics and strategy in the earlier field, with knowledge of the English regulars' qualities of who shall say what usefulness, from Lexington to Yorktown. Besides establishing the tradition of arms, the French and Indian war rendered service most useful in knitting the colonies into a firm fabric.

WHEN A NEWSPAPER IS "YELLOW."

The statement is made by a noted editor that the metropolitan dailies are "very largely the muckrakers of the universe, the distorters of facts and the debauchers of thought for the masses, in whom eventually abides the fate of the republic."

The editor points to his own metropolitan daily as a model.

That sensationalism is overdone by various organs that could be mentioned must readily be conceived by any impartial observer. Even the London ha'penny sheets are cutting away from their old time standards and joining in the mad race to see which can outextra the other when important happenings are in the air.

However, there is to be considered what the public wants in newspapers. The American tendency to look with favor on "yellow" methods may, after all, be a criticism of our thought and morals as a nation, but if "yellowness" is demanded by the readers it is an open question as to whether or not they should be given it. The immense circulation of the so-called "yellows" in our big cities indicates how widespread is the fondness of the public for stories of a sensational nature, "played up" to the very limit. We can see no particular harm to the public in journalism of that sort except when the stories are inherent objectionable. In this class we would place divorce cases and many other matrimonial actions, low crimes and articles going into minute details as to the committing of any form of crime. Articles of the latter description often provide instruction for criminals in their predatory operations and encourage youths to try their luck at acts of violence. For much the same reason suicides should not be described too minutely. Invariably "yellow" stories of suicides are followed by a multiplicity of attempts by weakminded or despondent persons to follow the same method employed by the central figure in the affair.

Will a story handled in a given way convince an intelligent persons that it is against the interests of public policy?

That query applied to newspaper articles and answered in the negative will, in our opinion, prove a fair test of what should or should not go into the columns of a newspaper.

ENJOYABLE OCCASION.

Katherine Ahern, Katherine McKenna, Annie Beattie, Mae McWilliams, Jennie Graumann, Josephine and Margaret Daly, Lillian Crilly, Theresa Sullivan, Bernadette Allen, Ethel McDonald, Catherine Weschler, Edna Brill, Mrs. C. H. Appich, Mrs. F. E. Beall Mrs. R. P. Torbet, Mrs. F. R. Weller, Mrs L. R. Brooks, and Sisters Melita, Ancilla and Agnes of the Precious Blood; the recent death in Salt Lake of Sister Aurelius(Elizabeth Laphen) a pupil of the old school on Fairfax street and a member of the alumnae was also announced.

Ranks were then formed as in school days and all proceeded to the convent chapel, whose altars redolent with American Beauty roses and glowing with countless lights were, as one alumnae expressed it, a glimpse of heaven. Here benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given by Rev. Father Cutler and as the last strains of the hymn, "Sweet Jesus Bless us ere we go" died on the air, it was with glad hearts that all present rejoiced at the privilege of getting back once a year to the scene of youth's triumphs and aspirations.

Eight o'clock was the hour named for the banquet and promptly at that time all proceeded to the banquet hall which all agreed was never more beautiful. Red and green was the color scheme and it was carried out in decorations of hall and table, as well as menu card and souvenir a dainty handkerchief in a still daintier box.

A red rose was at each place, and when all were seated it was a picture worthy of an artist. Beautiful women, elegantly gowned, and full of the joy of the home coming, and over all the red glow of countless lights amid a veritable bower of roses.

The menu, served with an elegance never before surpassed by Mr. William Rammel of this city, was as follows:

Oyster Cocktail

Celery.
Roast Young Turkey
Asparagus.
Pitted Olives.
Cranberry French Peas.
Creamed Potatoes.
Salades, Chicken a la Normande

The feast over Mrs. Guido Kengla, toastmistress in the absence of Miss Hill, the president, introduced in a happy manner, "The Feast of Reason and the flow of soul" calling first upon Miss Mildred Hellmuth who gave a toast to the Reverend Clergy, guests of the alumnae Mrs. Kengla then in a few choice phrases expressed the heart greeting of all alumnae to the present Sister Superior of St. Mary's Academy who is herself a graduate of the institution and a member of the Alumnae. Hearty applause testified to the joy that filled all hearts to welcome back as Superior one who was a schoolmate to many at last night's banquet.

After the singing of "Auld Lang Syne,', the toast mistress called upon Miss Mary Murphy to respond the toast "Memories", and her response was all that the word suggested. It abounded in witty references to the pleasantries of school life and was often interrupted by the hearty merriment her words evoked as she brought all back to glad days spent at St. Marys. An Alumnae song followed after which Mrs. Kengla welcomed the class of 1913, to which Miss Mildred Goods responded in a sweet toast in verse which expressed the honor the class felt in being allowed to associate themselves with the devoted band of women yearly growing larger.

Rev. Father Cutler was then called upon to say a few words which he did in his usual earnest manner; after expressing pleasure he felt at being with the Alumnae, he reminded them of their sacred duty as graduates of St. Mary's—to be ever noble, God-fearing women, an honor to womanhood and to their Alma Mater whose influence should ever direct their lives to the highest and the best. An evening hymn to the Virgin closed the feast, which all present agreed was in every way most enjoyable. Good-byes were then said and all departed with a new joy in their lives for the brief hours spent with youth in its happy associations.

Those present at the banquet were Rev. Fathers Cutler and Lucke the Mrs. Gulla Kengla, James Quinn Frank Quinn, Martin Greene, E. M Adams, T. J. Echolls, Jas. Bales, Wm Quinn, Philip Warren, the Misses Waters, Spetzler, Harlow, Nevitt, Greene, Kavanaugh, Melanie, and Marie Graumann, Gertrude, Mattie, Rosa Eva and Genevieve Crilly, Ifft, Gilroy, Kuhn, Daly, Bashford, Margaret and Marie Greene, Brill, Nellie and Mary Murphy, Jenkins, Mary and Helen Nugent, Waggaman, Mayer. Most Dangerous of Minor Ailments.

Of the minor ailments a cold is by far the most dangerous, not in itself, but the serious diseases it so often leads to. Pneumonia and consumption always start with a cold When you have a cold you are much more likely to contract the infectious diseases, such as diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough. Colds are easily cured, in fact Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of this most common ailment, and is pleasant and safe to take. Why take such desperate chances when so reliable and trustworthy a medicine may be obtained for a quarter. For sale by all dealers.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years. STOMACH SUFFERERS

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy Is Recommended and Praised By Thousands Who Have Been Restored

"I was a sick man for about three months caused from Gall Stones of the Liver and was told by three of our most prominent physicians that I would have to submit to an operation to get relief, but heard of your Wonderful Stomach Remedy and secured a full treatment and took it according to directions and passed hundreds of Gall Stones. Since taking your medicine I work regularly and don't feel any ill effects. I am praising your Remedy to all my friends. I think it's worthy of the highest praise. B. L. DOOLEY, Roanoke, Va."

Sufferers of Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments are not asked to take Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy for weeks and months before they feel benefited. Just try one dose—which should make you feel better in health, convince you that you will soon be well and strong, free you from pain and suffering and give you a sound and healthy Stomach, as it has done in thousands of other cases. Wherever it is taken you will hear nothing but the highest praise. Go to your druggist—ask him about the great results it has been accomplishing in cases of people he knows. Or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for a free book on Stomach Ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored.

YOUR HAIR IS TURNING GREY AND IT MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

This is Not the Time When Old Age is to be Desired

TO KEEP POPULAR KEEP YOUR APPEARANCE OF YOUTH

A young man was surprised to have his application for a position "turned down." He was better equipped for the position than the fellow who got it.

He discovered that his grey hairs did it. He was "too old" looking. It's the same everywhere. There is no doubt but that grey hair does make a man look old. There is no use waiting another minute—don't lose your position or fail in getting a better one because you are old looking—use Hay's Hair Health now.

Those who are using Hay's Hair Health recommend it to their friends, because it is genuinely good, always restores grey hair to its natural color; destroys dandruff, keeps the scalp clean and healthy. You begin to note the difference at once. The few grey hairs disappear and never return.

Why look old when you are young? Get a bottle of Hay's Hair Health at once, start using it and see what a difference a few applications make.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

After failing in an attempt to escape from his captors yesterday, within sight of the Tyson, Md., jail, Frederick Bysenhart, of Golden Ring, Baltimore county, slayer of his own son, later hurled himself over the second tier railing of the jail and narrowly escaped death He received a long gash on the head. Bysenhart obtained permission to secure a drink of water, and was released from his cell on the second tier. He suddenly swung himself over the iron rail and plunged 15 feet to the stone pavement. Last Sunday after a quarrel with his son Herman Bysenhart, 19 years old, the father killed the boy by shooting him in the head.

The Atlanga Federal prison was characterized as a "living hell," and Warden Moyer as "unfit" by Julia Hawthorne, the writer, who has been released from the prison, after serving a sentence for fraud in connection with the sale of mining stock. She also arraigned conditions in the penitentiary as "repressive, cruel and equal of the most lurid description of fiction." "They are starving men in the name of economy," Hawthorne declared. "You hear of the clean cells in which the prisoners sleep. But you never hear of the 'hole', do you? For the slightest fault, sometimes for breaking a plate, sometimes for little less, a prisoner is sent to the 'hole,' a place under the main building for solitary confinement." W. Morton, of New York, who also was released after serving a sentence for the same time, was equally emphatic in his denunciations of the conditions at the Southern prison. "Prisoners are subjected to treatment that is nothing more than slow murder," Dr Morton declared. "There is never enough to eat. The warden tries to feed strong men on 9 cents a day, and when he succeeds, he brags about it

Never Neglect your kidneys.
If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are frequently symptoms of kidney trouble, and a remedy which is recommended for the kidneys should be taken in time.

Doan's Kidney Pills is a good remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has acted effectvely in many cases in Alexandria. Follow the advice of an Alexandria citizen.

Mrs. G. W. Davis, 107 Prince St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I owe my health to Doan's Kidney Pills. I have used them frequently during the past seven years and they have often brought me relief after everything else had failed. Doctors treated me for a long while and said my case was a severe one. I had undergone tortures from the complaint and often I was all worn out. When I had almost given up hope I took Doan's Kidney Pills. They have strengthened me and rid me of kidney trouble."

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Annelle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from woman trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak a word in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

Sure Indications of Lung Trouble

Among the indications of threatened Lung Trouble are a continued cough, fever and night sweats. A change of climate often helps, but it seems that something more is needed to stop the cough and sweats and arrest the progress of disease. Eckman's Alterative, after many years of use, is known to be most beneficial in bringing about relief, in many cases complete recoveries. Investigate this case:— Schell City, Mo.

"Gentlemen: I had a terrible cough, night sweats and pleurisy in my lungs. A man who heard me coughing advised me to take your Alterative. I paid no attention to him then. I got so bad the doctor said I should go to Wyoming. I did, and when I got there I steadily grew worse. Then I remembered what had been told me about your medicine. I began taking it, with no faith whatever, but before I had taken three bottles, I could eat anything. Fever and night sweats stopped and for over a year I have been well and in better health than I ever was." W. E. ROMAR.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists
